This policy is to be followed by and applied to all stakeholders in Dartford Primary Academy. It is available on the school's website for all to access and can be provided in print as a hard copy if so requested. All school-based members of staff are made aware of the policy at induction and through refresher training.

At all times, Dartford Primary Academy works with children, parents, carers, teachers, non-teaching staff and relevant outside agencies to ensure the very best approaches to inclusion are embedded.

Our Mission for All our Children

Our aim is to send all our pupils onwards so they become lifelong learners, who are successful, confident and responsible global citizens with a desire to improve the world in which they live. Our purpose is to equip our children to be internationally-minded and to possess the essential skills they need to be successful and engaged in all their learning throughout their educational careers and within their future vocations. This is our aspiration for ALL children, regardless of background, and therefore we implement an inclusive approach across all our areas of academy life to increase access and engagement and remove or reduce barriers that children may face in teaching, learning and assessment.

The IB and inclusion

The IB states, "Inclusion is an ongoing process that aims to increase access and engagement in learning for all students by identifying and removing barriers. This can only be successfully achieved in a culture of collaboration, mutual respect, support and problem solving. Inclusion is the learner profile in action, an outcome of dynamic learning communities." ¹

What is an inclusive education at Dartford Primary Academy?

At Dartford Primary Academy, we want all children to be successful learners who are both suitably prepared for the next stage of their education as well as their future vocations. We want all children to be both excited by their learning and proud of their achievements regardless of their backgrounds. Our inquiry-led approach means that the children are studying a curriculum that interests and excites them. They are all included in asking questions and generating ideas for what they wish to study and lead the direction of the inquiry. As a result, all pupils are engaged to motivate and learn, realising that they can take action to improve the world they live in.

At all times, teachers and teams plan and scaffold lessons and activities which reduce or remove barriers to learning and ensure access for all to a curriculum that meets their needs. Additional support is built in around the school day to focus on being able to access learning, closing gaps and building on children's strengths. For example, sensory circuits are used with those children who need it to settle and prepare them before entering the classroom environment each day. Alongside this, teachers look ahead to the key learning that will come up in an inquiry and make use of pre-teaching strategies to equip the pupils who need it with prior knowledge they can then build on.

All children, regardless of their background will make progress and teachers and teams will do all that they can to adapt the education provided to meet each child's needs.

For more detailed information on policy documentation, the extent of learning needs at Dartford Primary Academy and how these needs are met, please see our SEND Information Report. This will be updated at least annually and to keep up-to-date with the needs of the student population.

School Development

To ensure our staff have both the knowledge and expertise to deliver a fully inclusive curriculum, we provide a needs-based, bespoke continuing professional development programme throughout the academic year. Our CPD schedule is planned to meet the needs of our school community. Where needed, outside agencies are planned in to give specialist training in areas.

In addition, staff have access to the following CPD resources to independently complete their own study in specific areas.

- National College

- Chartered College of Teaching
- TT Education

Resources

When planning to meet the individual needs of children so that they can be fully included in learning, we make use of:

- The London Borough of Bexley's Quality First Teaching and Special Educational Needs Support Toolkit
- International Baccalaureate's, 'Meeting student learning diversity in the classroom.'
- Kent County Council Mainstream Core Standards

These documents are a staff member's first point of call for guidance to meet a child's needs. Once they have reviewed and worked through the suggested strategies they are then able to meet with the academy's inclusion team for further ideas and support. It is in meeting with this team that the decision will be made as to whether access to any outside agencies is needed or to complete any in-school screening. Outside agencies could include but are not limited to educational psychologists, specialist teachers or speech and language therapists.

In school we have access to the following screening tools in order to assess children:

- GL Dyslexia Screener
- PHAB screener
- RAPT - Renfrew Action Picture Test of expressive language
- SpeechLink
- LanguageLink
- Visual Stress assessment

At Dartford Primary Academy, we highly value the role additional staff play in accelerating progress and ensuring our approaches are fully inclusive. Our teaching assistant team is overseen by our inclusion lead to both ensure the needs of children are fully met and provide additional training where needed to deliver specific support. During lesson times, teaching assistants are fully involved in the teaching and provide in the moment feedback for maximum impact on progress. Around the school day, they lead bespoke interventions to close gaps, prepare pupils for learning and pre-teach required knowledge.

In addition to this, we budget specifically to purchase resources which will make the environment, curriculum and structure of the day fully inclusive. This budget is overseen by the inclusion lead and authorised by the principal.

Some examples of the resources previously purchased are:

- Communication in Print
- Ear defenders
- Toys for attention
- Coloured overlays
- Lexia
